THIEF HELD UP HIS HANDS

Discovered, He is Made to Hold Them Up Till Police Come

Kansas City, Dec. 4.—For half an hour yesterday morning Frank M. Green, a copper, escaped notice, until he found Joseph Holden's home, at 84 East Fifth street, and held his hands above his head while the police arrived.

Green was discovered about 10:30 trying to break into Mrs. Holden's house. She called Bradford, who had a room in the house, on going outside to find Green trying to pry open the window of Mrs. Holden's room.

"Hold up your hands!" commanded the porter. The negro hesitated and Bradford fired a shot over his head.

When the police arrived, Green was found in a room, and Bradford made him hold them higher.

FIGHT WAS JOBBED.

Some Believe Sharkey is Suffering From Manufactured Pain

San Francisco, Dec. 4.—Police Commissioner Curtis has testified that the prize fight Wednesday night was a "job" fight. He is believed to be with the general result that he has announced that there will be no more prize fighting in San Francisco if his influence can prevent it.

The mystery of Sharkey's injury has not yet been satisfactorily solved, and it is intimated that Sharkey is to be operated for the purpose of manufacturing the evidence necessary to back up the claim of Curtis.

SPANISH TROOPS DESERT.

Troops of a Spanish Garrison Go Over to the Insurgents.

Manzanillo, Fla., Dec. 4.—A special to the Journal from Key West says that the troops of the Spanish garrison at San Juan de los Rios, twenty miles south-west of Havana, have deserted to the insurgents. Many of the officers accompanied the troops, and the Spanish garrison was scattered.

REFEREE EARP'S VIEW.

Believes He was Right but is Sorry He Acted as Referee.

San Francisco, Dec. 4.—Wyatt Earp, the most talked of man of the hour, takes a philosophical view of the criticism that are being heaped upon him for his decision on Wednesday night, and says he will wait for time to set him right with the public. "If I had any fears that I erred in my decision they would have disappeared when I saw Sharkey today," he said last night. "Sharkey did not strike a foul blow, to my mind."

"I have one regret about the whole matter, and that is that I did not leave the ring when I felt that I was doing it wrong, but it occurred to me that it would be showing the yellow to the public if I had done so."
